Our definitive treatment attends not only to your body but also to your face, leaving you feeling lighter with a renewed sense of vitality, a true experience.

By starting with a slow rhythmic body brush, the skin is prepared for a full body hot stone massage. Essential oils of Juniper berries, Rosemary and Grapefruit are used to soothe the muscles of the body together with the mind, while hot stones further reduce any lingering tension. The focus then moves from the body to the face where your skin is thoroughly cleansed and moisturized, visibly improving the complexion.
